Comments

Board Member Becky Hill commented that it is good to see the kids excited about going to school.

Board Member Julie Hollingsworth commented on an article from The Economist regarding districts that are unionized and pay teachers more, have more of an incentive to fire bad teachers.

Board president Mark GiaQuinta thanked FWCS and Adams Elementary teacher Linda Shafer for preparing his daughter, Marah, for the job she has in Denver Public Schools.

Mr. GiaQuinta also encouraged people to contact their City Council representative to urge them to vote against a business personal property tax repeal that has been introduced by Councilman Jason Arp. The impact on schools is not known but an article in the paper noted that it could be a loss of millions for schools. He suggested that he and Kathy Friend attend the council meeting.

Mr. GiaQuinta also commented about his presentation on the Indiana voucher program to Rotary.
