When the application period ended on November 25, there were five applicants who met the qualifications: reside in District 3 for at least one year, registered to vote in District 3 and at least 21 years old. On December 2, the Board met in public session to interview Casey Claypool, William Critell, Sheri Rouse, Julie Smith and Noah Smith. At this time, the Board will accept nominations from members for appointment to the District 3 seat. Each nominee will be voted upon by the Board in the order of nomination. Per President Hollingsworth, due to law, Tom Smith would not be able to vote on his replacement. Roll call vote with comments for Noah Smith: Steve Corona, yes; Glenna Jehl, yes; Maria Norman, yes; Anne Duff, yes. With 4 yes votes being made there was no need to continue voting, but the remaining members continued to vote with Rohli Booker, no; Julie Hollingsworth, yes.

Noah Smith, by a 5-1 margin, was appointed to the 3rd district seat effective January 2021.

Comments

Board Member Steve Corona commented on the report released earlier in the day from the Governor's Commission on teacher pay. This report has 37 recommendations as how to bring up teacher pay in Indiana, which has fallen dramatically compared to other states. FWCS has been most adversely affected in the state due to vouchers, in part to great options in the Fort Wayne area. Mr. Corona will miss Glenna Jehl and Tom Smith.

Board Member Glenna Jehl congratulated Jennifer Matthias and Noah Smith as new Board Members. She is confident that the Board and the new Superintendent will have passion and determination to take FWCS to a whole new level.

Board Member Tom Smith also congratulated Jennifer Matthias and Noah Smith as new Board Members. Mr. Smith also spoke about the election where he only won by 1%. He wishes Mr. Critell well in the future. He said goodbye to friends on the Board and he looks forward to “retirement.”

Board Member Maria Norman congratulated Jennifer Matthias and Noah Smith as new Board Members. Ms. Norman also spoke about ISBA and the legislative long session. She misses the Lakeside strings, December entertainment that was not able to perform this year due to the pandemic. Ms. Norman also thanked staff, including Nutrition Services and Sodexo. She hopes everyone takes time over break to rest and renew their spirit.

Board Member Anne Duff hopes that voucher funding can be reduced so teacher pay can be increased. She thanked Tom Smith and Glenna Jehl for their service. Ms. Duff hopes everyone stays safe and healthy over the holiday.

Board Member Rohli Booker thanked all who applied for the District 3 seat. Ms. Booker also thanked all staff, including Principals and the Administrative Building for working so hard to put students’ first. She asked that the community pays attention to what is going on at the State level. It was recommended to view webpages or social media sites of the IDOE, Keep Indiana Schools Strong (KISS), Indiana Coalition for Public Education and Northeast Indiana Friends of Public Education.

Superintendent Dr. Mark Daniel thanked the Board for their leadership and congratulated new Board members. He looks forward to the January Board retreat. IUSA is releasing information on the budgeting formula and how to best serve students in Indiana. Our Special Education population continues to grow with an increase of expenses. We would like for this to be funded separately. FWCS is a part of a new coalition with area school districts so we have a voice in northern Indiana. Dr. Daniel wished everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Board President Julie Hollingsworth mentioned the Next Level Teacher Compensation that came out today. The commission is appointed by the Governor, even though K12 spending has been increased, it has not increased at a fast pace. Complexity funding should be increased. This Legislative session will be a challenge. Contact your legislators and tell your story. Excited that in about 37 days, the first time in history, a woman will be sworn in as the 2nd highest elected position in our country, as well as, a record number of women sworn into Congress. President Hollingsworth also thanked the group for allowing her to be the Board President. She appreciates the Board coming together, during a pandemic, that they hired a good superintendent, whom they never met in person. President Hollingsworth did a shout out to every staff member for their extraordinary work this year.

Glenna Jehl
and Tom Smith

President Hollingsworth presented a plaque to Board members Glenna Jehl and Tom Smith in appreciation of their years of service on the Board.
